The apartment complex of Puerto Alto is conveniently placed between the two beaches of Playa la Rada and Playa del Cristo, both of which offer Chiringuitos serving drinks and food through the day. Parking is located in the underground garage with lift access to the apartment level. Both have chiringuito beach bars for snacks and drinks served during the day and evening. Playa del Cristo has soft sand and shallow water, which is ideal for younger children. Located about 12 minutes' walk along the sea front, you'll find the old town of Estepona with its quaint cobbled streets, pretty flower lined avenues and traditional Spanish charm. Head towards Plaza de las Flores for the centre of the old town and a refreshing ice cream at the Heladeria! Here you'll also find the main shopping street of La Terraza, with its boutique shops. Also, have a look for Calle Real where you'll find traditional tapas bars and excellent eateries! Whilst on the terraza, carry on to see the Orchid glass house, which was built in 2014 it is a great place to pass a morning or afternoon. The apartment is located in easy day trips of some of the larger towns of Andalucia: Seville, Cordoba, Granada and Málaga. Don't forget Gibraltar is only 30 minutes away too, where you can pay in Sterling and enjoy many bargains in the shopping street of Main Street. The apartment is less than four minutes walk to a taxi rank and also the local bus stop. The Wednesday market is held about 10 minutes walk from the apartments – ideal for knick-knacks and fresh fruit and vegetables. The Sunday market in the marina is great for souvenirs and gifts to take home for family and friends.
