This 815 m<sup>2</sup> villa, set on a 4,139 m<sup>2</sup> plot, stands out for its fluid lines and passive design, featuring exposed concrete with high thermal inertia. Its entrance is a true spectacle, with a natural bamboo bridge over water leading to an impressive foyer, where a six meter tall ficus bonsai rises from a reflecting pond, illuminated by natural light streaming through a glass ceiling. Inside, a serene Japanese garden and custom designed elements elevate the sophistication of the space. Designed for both entertainment and relaxation, it includes a state of the art cinema room, soon to be relocated beneath the pool for an immersive experience.
